Mr. John L. Holston of Augusta spent Monday and Tuesday in Edgefield.

Mrs. B. D. Ward of Charleston is here visiting her mother, Mrs. Annie Rives.

Mr. J. K. Allen is attending the United States court in Rock Hill this week as a juror.

Miss Grace Wofford of Hartsville spent several days in Edgefield last week visiting friends.

Mr. John Schroder of Savannah was cordially greeted by his friends in Edgefield Thursday.

Miss Jeannie Simkins left Monday for Buffalo, Union county, to enter upon her duties as teacher.

Miss Margaret Hill of Augusta is being very cordially welcomed as a visitor in Edgefield this week.

Misses Sara and Catherine Bryan of Greenville spent last week in Edgefield visiting their sister, Mrs. A. R. Nicholson.

The Parent-Teachers Association will give a reception to the teachers at the home of Mrs. L. P. Smith Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Ellen Strother and Miss Charlotte Strother have returned from Beaufort where they have been spending the summer.

Mr. Robert Bee of Alcolu, S. C. is here visiting his sisters, Misses Minna and Annie Bee and Mr. W. H. Bee.

Mrs. T. G. Smith, Miss Lucile Smith and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Griffiths are visiting relatives and friends in Shelby, Gastonia and Charlotte.

Concordia Lodge, No. 50, A. F. M., will meet in called communication Friday night, September 15, at eight o'clock for work in the second degree.

With three elections being conducted yesterday, state, county and municipal elections, surely the people of Edgefield had their desire to vote gratified.

Miss Lucille Brunson, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Brunson of the Antioch section, will teach the Blocker school during the approaching session.

Mr. John Hollingsworth of Charleston is here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Hollingsworth. His friends always extend to him the glad handclasp.

Miss Fanny Sheppard and Master George Edward Sheppard returned this morning after spending several weeks in Atlanta with Mr. and Mrs. Orlando Sheppard, Jr.

Miss Ouida Pattison returned to Anderson college yesterday to resume her duties as one of the music teachers. She has made a splendid record at Anderson college.

Married, Saturday morning, September 9, by Rev. P. P. Blalock, at the residence of the officiating minister, Mr. C. B. Lanier and Miss Mary L. Brown, both of Modoc.

Besides superintending the erection of Mr. McLendon's new residence, Mr. Heath will also superintend the building of a new home for Mr. J. H. Mathis near Trenton.

Messrs. Lyon Brothers announce the arrival of a new shipment of Hood auto and truck tires. They can supply any size of this celebrated tire at very reasonable prices.

Miss Katherine Thompson and Master Thomas Thompson arrived yesterday from Southport, N. C., to spend the fall and winter with their grandmother, Mrs. Kate D. Butler.

Eighty-one votes were cast in the election in Ward 5 yesterday, Mr. Clyde Hamilton received 41 and Mr. S. B. Nicholson received 40, Mr. Hamilton being declared elected warden.

Mr. Willie McManus left yesterday for Greenville to matriculate in Furman University. He graduated in June from the Spartan Academy and is well equipped for entering Furman. We expect to hear good reports from his work there.

The writer received a card from Mr. C. M. Mellichamp this morning stating that they arrived safely in Louisville, Ky., and have secured comfortable quarters at 718 Magazine street.

Reading the list of good things to eat in the advertisement of the Hugins Store is almost like passing a cafe at lunch time and inhaling the fumes of a well-cooked dinner. Read them this week.

Miss Emmie Lanham left Tuesday night for Alta Pass, N. C., where she has been engaged as principal of the school in which her sister, Miss Grace Lanham, is teaching. The position carries a very lucrative salary.

Mr. Strom Thurmond returned to Clemson last week to enter upon his senior course. He recently had the honor bestowed upon him of being commissioned a first lieutenant in the cadet corps.

Mr. Tom Salter, a son of Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Salter, was taken suddenly ill Monday and was rushed to the University hospital in Augusta where he underwent an operation for appendicitis. We are pleased to report that he is doing very well.

The first meeting of the autumn of the Parent-Teachers Association was held Thursday afternoon at the school building. The attendance was large and much interest was manifested. Plans were laid for the work of the school year 1922-23.

Mr. J. H. Courtney passed through Edgefield yesterday in his big new Studebaker car while en route to Greenville, being accompanied by his daughter, Miss Margaret Courtney, and Miss Cornelia Webb, both of whom go to enter the G. W. C.

Mr. D. B. McLendon has begun the erection of an attractive bungalow near his old residence near Edgefield on the Trenton-Edgefield road. Mr. W. S. G. Heath will superintend the erection of this modern residence, which assures a splendid job.

The September meeting of the Edgefield chapter, D. A. R., will be held at the home of Mrs. Susan B. Hill Tuesday afternoon, September 19th at 4:30 o'clock. A full attendance of the members is urged as delegates will be elected to the national convention.

Miss Patti Major stopped over in Edgefield for several days last week as a guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Parker while en route from Beaufort to her home in Pickens county. She is always very cordially greeted by her Edgefield friends.

Mr. J. T. Crews of Laurens spent several days last week in Edgefield with his brother, Mr. E. H. Crews. He has many warm personal friends in Edgefield who always welcome his coming among us. It has been his habit for several years to spend a portion of his summer vacation here.

Mr. Douglas Timmerman left yesterday to enter upon his senior course at Furman university. Edgefield is very proud of this consecrated young man and his every step in fitting himself for the ministry will be watched with prayerful interest. He has made himself felt for good in this county during his vacation months.

Everybody thought that Ford cars had, for the money expended upon them, about all the improvement that could be made upon a car, but the Yonce Motor Company calls attention to some attractive new features of the 1923 Model Fords. Mr. Yonce has some of the new models in stock. Better place your order for one of these cars before they are all sold.

Mr. M. D. Lyon, Jr., manager of the newly established Piggly Wiggly store in Johnston, spent a short time in Edgefield this morning and stated that Messrs. Murphey & Company of Augusta have decided not to open one of their branch stores in Edgefield. It was announced a week ago that this company would open a Piggly Wiggly store in the old post office building. Mr. Lyon is greatly pleased with his success in Johnston.

Left For Seminary.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Mellichamp, accompanied by their children, left Thursday morning for Louisville, Ky., where Mr. Mellichamp will enter the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. Mrs. Mellichamp will also take the training course provided for women in the seminary. The prayers and good wishes of our people go with Mr. and Mrs. Mellichamp. At the prayer meeting at the Baptist church Wednesday night Mr. Mellichamp gave expression to beautiful parting words which made a profound impression upon all present.

Trenton's College Boys and Girls.

Trenton is sending an unusually large number of boys and girls to college this fall, the following having left or will soon leave: W. A. Pardue, Jr., Randolph-Macon; Charlie Day and Thames Jamison, Clemson; James Herlong and Lewis Moss, Furman; Hugh Clarke, Citadel; Miss Eva Duncan, Winthrop; Miss Susan Mathis, Brenau; Miss Kathleen Smith, Columbia College; Miss Cornelia Webb and Miss Margaret Courtney, Greenville Woman's College.

Card of Thanks.

We take this means of thanking our neighbors and friends for their extreme kindness to us and to our father, Mr. T. L. Miller, during his late illness. We desire to thank especially too, Dr. J. N. Crafton, our family physician, who was so thoughtful and attentive during father's long illness. We shall never forget the kindness and thoughtful attention of all our friends.

Spelling Bee by U. D. C.

Friday night, September 22, an old fashioned spelling bee will be held in the court house under the auspices of the Edgefield chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy. Two spelling contests will be arranged, one for the adults and another for the children, and prizes will be offered in both contests for the best speller. Bettengut out your old Blue Back speller and your Webster's Unabridged and get some of the rust off your mental faculties, if you would win one of these valuable prizes. There are some past masters in Edgefield in spelling and the winner will have to be a tip-top speller to carry off the honors of the occasion. Ice cream and cake will also be served to refresh the spellers and spectators.

Mr. Carver Talbert and His Charming Bride.

Wednesday afternoon, September 6, at six o'clock, Mr. Carver Talbert, the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. T. Garrett Talbert of Parksville, claimed Miss Willie Bradshaw, one of Parksville's very charming young ladies, as his bride, the ceremony being performed at the home of the bride's parents by Rev. Robert Roundtree. The bride was attired in a handsome traveling suit of brown, with hat and other accessories to match. Immediately after the ceremony they motored to Edgefield to be guests of relatives here, being accompanied to Edgefield by Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Kernaghan and little Motte Kernaghan, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Warren and Mr. William Parker, all of whom attended the wedding from Edgefield.

Mr. and Mrs. Talbert were showered with social attentions. Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Kernaghan gave an elaborate luncheon at the Dixie Highway Hotel in their honor and Mrs. Leon Warren also entertained some friends very beautifully in their honor. From Edgefield Mr. and Mrs. Talbert motored to Columbia, where they were also showered with social attentions by relatives and friends.

The Advertiser joins their host of friends in extending to these very popular young people sincere congratulations.
